NEW LIBRARIES — now open...

Joyce Ellington, 491 E. Empire St., (408) 808-3043

Pearl Avenue, 4270 Pearl Ave., (408) 808-3053

Willow Glen, 1157 Minnesota Ave., (408) 808-3046

If you haven't visited the library recently, there's no better time than the present. The opening of three more branches this summer brings to 13 the number of new libraries completed with funding from the November 2000 Branch Library Development Bond Measure. Four more are under construction.

All new libraries share basic similarities, not least of which is lots more space for seating, computers and collections.

They also feature a combination of the following:

- living room with fireplace
- technology center
- Internet café
- group and quiet study areas
- community room
- public art

Bring your family or your neighbor and plan to stay awhile. Enjoy free WiFi access during library hours. For location and hours, visit www.SJLibrary.org

The November 2000 Branch Library Bond Measure is dedicated to the construction of 6 new /14 expanded branch libraries in San José.

It's time for the SAT/ACT. Are they ready?

They can be with LearningExpress Library, offering:

- Targeted essay writing practice
- Full-length practice tests that mirror the official SAT and ACT
- An interactive course series that reinforces the same math, critical reading and writing skills tested on the SAT and ACT

Find them all at SJLibrary.org, along with GED, occupational and citizenship exams

BORROWER'S AGREEMENT

I agree to assume responsibility for all materials borrowed on this card and to abide by the following rules:

- Your San José Library Card entitles you to borrow materials from all San José Public Library branches and from the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Library, which includes the San José State University collection.
- You must present a library card to check out materials. You may apply for a library card at any San José Library. Photo identification and verification of address are required at the time of registration.
- Notify the library if you change your mailing address, email address, or telephone number, so you can receive important messages regarding your account.
- Contact the library immediately to report lost or stolen cards. You are responsible for all materials borrowed on your card before the library is notified that the card is lost.
- Your first library card is free. A fee may be charged for replacing lost or stolen cards.
- Most materials are checked out for three weeks, with the exception of some media items, which may be borrowed for one week.
- Most materials not requested by other patrons may be renewed in person, by phone or electronically. See staff for assistance and additional details on renewal.
- Public Library cards not used for two years are subject to expiration.
- Persons attempting to leave the library with library materials not checked out are subject to arrest and prosecution. (California Penal Code Section 490.5)
- A parent's or guardian's signature is required for applicants under 18 years of age.
- Fines are charged for items returned after the due date. Fines begin with the first day the item is overdue. See Late Fees schedule in "Using Your Card" brochure for details.
- Fines are not charged for Sundays or holidays, with the exception of academic reserves materials.
- You are responsible for any loss of, or damage to, materials borrowed on your library card. The full price plus a handling fee is charged for lost public library items. Please be aware that lost or damaged University owned items carry a standard price of $80.00, plus a $10.00 handling fee and applicable late fees. Consult the "Using Your Card" brochure for more information, or see a staff member for details.
- Failure to return library materials may result in added fees and further collection referral and may restrict your borrowing privileges.

PARENTS: The Library has an open access policy to all materials and information sources. This means that we do not restrict any item in the collection or limit access to the Internet. It is a parent's right and responsibility to guide use by minors and ensure that their children use the library according to individual family beliefs. The Internet is a valuable resource for information, but some sites may not provide accurate information, while others, in your judgment, may be inappropriate for your child.
